

ML + Management Liability Proposal Form

IMPORTANT NOTICES

Any terms used in this Proposal that are also used in the Policy wording have the same meaning as defined in the Policy wording. Please read the Policy wording to understand the cover we can provide before completing this Proposal.

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before any person/s enter into an insurance policy with us, they have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to us every matter that they know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and if so, on what terms.

They have the same duty to disclose those matters to us before they renew, extend, vary or reinstate the Policy.

The duty applies until the Policy is entered into, or where relevant, renewed, extended, varied or reinstated (Relevant Time). If anything changes between the time disclosures are made and the Relevant Time, the person/s need to tell us.

What we do not need to know

A person does not need to tell us about any matter that:

- diminishes our risk;
- is of common knowledge;
- we know or should know in our business as an insurer;
- we tell the person we do not need to know.

Who does the duty apply to?

The duty of disclosure applies in relation to everyone who is insured under the Policy.

What happens if the duty of disclosure is not complied with?

If the duty of disclosure is not complied with we may cancel the Policy and/or reduce our liability under the Policy in respect of a claim. If fraud is involved, we may treat the Policy as if it never existed, and pay nothing.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE OF THE FOLLOWING STATEMENTS PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE INSURANCE CONTRACTS ACT 1984

“Claims made and notified” general information

The information under this heading is provided for general information purposes only and does not:

- form part of the Policy.
- impose any contractual obligations on any Insured or create contractual rights between us.

Certain insuring clauses in the Policy wording operate on a “Claims made and notified” basis, which means that they:

- cover claims made against the relevant Insured and notified to us in writing during the Period of Insurance.
- do not provide cover in relation to:
 - claims made against an Insured after the expiry of the Period of Insurance even though the event giving rise to the claim may have occurred during the Period of Insurance (unless specified otherwise);
 - claims made against an Insured notified or arising out of facts or circumstances notified (or which ought reasonably to have been notified) under any previous policy;
 - claims made, threatened or intimated against an Insured prior to the commencement of the Period of Insurance;
 - facts or circumstances of which an Insured first became aware prior to the Period of Insurance, and which they knew or ought reasonably to have known had the potential to give rise to a claim under the Policy;
 - claims arising out of circumstances noted on the proposal for the current Period of Insurance or on any previous proposal form;
 - claims arising from civil, administrative, criminal or regulatory proceeding, investigation, arbitration or adjudication that existed prior to or was pending before the commencement of the Period of Insurance.

If the Insured gives notice in writing to Us of any facts that might give rise to a Claim against them as soon as reasonably practicable after they become aware of those facts but before the expiry of the Period of Insurance, they may have rights under Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (the Act) to be indemnified in respect of any claim subsequently made against them arising from those facts, notwithstanding that the Claim is made after the expiry of the Period of Insurance. Such rights arise under the Act only. The terms of the Policy and the effect of the Policy is that the Insured is not covered for claims made against them after the expiry of the Period of Insurance unless specified otherwise.

Utmost good faith

The Policy is based on the utmost good faith requiring us and the proposer/insured(s) (including third party beneficiaries after the Policy is entered into) to act towards each other with the utmost good faith in respect of any matter relating to the Policy. A failure to comply is a breach of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

NOTICES

We will send all notices in relation to the Policy to:

- the Policyholder’s nominated insurance intermediary until we receive written notice to the contrary from the Policyholder;
- or
- if there is no nominated intermediary, the Policyholder, acting on behalf of all Insureds.

RIGHTS OF OTHER PARTIES

Save as provided under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, no other party except the you or the Applicant shall be entitled to make a claim or enforce any term of this Policy.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You and the Applicant agree not to disclose the terms, conditions, exclusions or limits of indemnity of the Policy or the amount of premium paid to any third party, except to the extent that you or the Applicant is required to do so by law, or unless we give our prior written consent to such disclosure.

RENEWAL PROCEDURE

Before the Policy expires we will advise you/the Applicant via their intermediary, or the Policyholder, whether we intend to offer renewal and if so on what terms.

This advice also applies for any offer of renewal we may make, unless we tell you otherwise.

It is important that you check the terms of any renewal offer before renewing to satisfy yourselves that the details are correct. In particular, check the maximum Limit(s) of Indemnity (Sub Limit(s) of Indemnity) and Additional Limits of Indemnity amounts and Retention(s) applicable, and to ensure the levels of cover are appropriate.

Please note that you/the Insured need to comply with the duty of disclosure before each renewal.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Unless the context otherwise provides, in this section 'we', 'our' or 'us' means Arch Syndicate 2012 at Lloyd's and Arch Underwriting at Lloyd's (Australia) Pty Ltd and their related entities.

Personal information is essentially any information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable. See the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the Act) for full details of what constitutes personal information.

This privacy notice details how we collect, disclose and handle personal information.

Why we collect your personal information

We collect personal information (including sensitive information) so we can:

- identify you and conduct necessary checks;
- determine what service or products we can provide to you e.g. offer our insurance products;
- issue, manage and administer services and products provided to you or others, including claims investigation, handling and settlement;
- improve our services and products, e.g. training and development of our representatives, product and service research and data analysis and business strategy development.

What happens if you don't give us your personal information?

If you choose not to provide us with the information we have requested, we may not be able to provide you with our services or products or properly manage and administer services and products provided to you or others.

How we collect your personal information

Collection can take place through websites (from data input directly or through cookies and other web analytic tools), email, by telephone or in writing.

We collect it directly from you unless you have consented to collection from someone other than you, it is unreasonable or impracticable for us to do so, or the law permits us to.

If you provide us with personal information about another person, you must only do so with their consent and agree to make them aware of this privacy notice.

Who we disclose your personal information to

We share your personal information with third parties for the collection purposes noted above.

The third parties include: our related companies and our representatives who provide services for us, other insurers and reinsurers, our claim management partner(s), your agents, our legal, accounting and other professional advisers, data warehouses and consultants, investigators, loss assessors and adjusters, other parties we may be able to claim or recover against, and anyone either of us appoint to review and handle complaints or disputes and any other parties where permitted or required by law.

We may need to disclose information to persons located overseas who will most likely be located in the United Kingdom. Who they are may change from time to time. You can contact us for details or refer to our Privacy Policy available at our website www.archinsurance.com.au. In some cases we may not be able to take reasonable steps to ensure they do not breach the Privacy Act and they may not be subject to the same level of protection or obligations that are offered by the Act. By proceeding to acquire our services and products you agree that you cannot seek redress under the Act or against us (to the extent permitted by law) and may not be able to seek redress overseas.

More information, access, correction or complaints

For more information about our privacy practices including how we collect, use or disclose information, how to access or seek correction to your information or how to complain in relation to a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how such a complaint will be handled, please refer to our Privacy Policy. It is available at our website www.archinsurance.com.au or by contacting us on (02) 8284 8400 EST 9am-5pm, Monday-Friday.

Privacy complaints: We have established a Privacy Complaints Handling Procedure to deal with any complaints you may have about how we have collected, used or managed your personal information. If you would like to make a complaint, please contact the Privacy Officer, Arch Underwriting at Lloyd's (Australia) Pty Ltd, Suites 4.01 & 4.02, Level 4, 68 York Street, Sydney NSW 2000 or email complaints@archinsurance.com.au Your complaint will be taken seriously and investigated thoroughly.

If you are not satisfied with our final decision, you can direct your complaint to the Federal Privacy Commissioner either on 1300 363 992 (for the cost of a local call anywhere in Australia) or by mail to GPO Box 5218, Sydney NSW 2001.

Your Choices: By providing us with personal information, you and any person you provide personal information for, consent to this use and these disclosures unless you tell us otherwise. If you wish to withdraw your consent, including for things such as receiving information on products and offers by us, or persons we have an association with, please contact us.

GENERAL INSURANCE CODE OF PRACTICE

The Insurance Council of Australia Limited has developed the General Insurance Code of Practice (the Code), which is a self-regulatory code for use by all insurers. The Code aims to raise the standards of practice and service in the insurance industry.

Lloyd's Australia Limited has adopted and endorses the Code. We are conscious of our obligations under the Code and are committed to complying with the Code's service standards in our dealings with you including the management of any complaint or dispute which might arise.

To obtain more information on the Code, please contact your Insurance Broker, or us, or you can access the Code at: www.codeofpractice.com.au
